

Stepping into the Light

We are here with you now and forever, Our sister, Our brother. All is well on this side of the veil. We are very proud of our Human brothers and sisters. You are all so full of Light. Some of you have found that Light while others, for various reasons, still have chosen not to connect with it. That is fine. All of you are at various stages of your learning. It is important to respect all students of Life and more importantly, to Love them all for they are your greater family.

Try to see all embodied Spirits as the Spirits they truly are. Try to look beyond the outer shell that is their body. Learn to see and feel their story, for it will reveal to you so much more than what appears outwardly. Even what they say or do rarely reveals their True Story. Look beyond. Feel beyond so you may come to know them as the true family they are. Things are rarely as they seem. Move beyond what your five senses reveal so you may enter into the world of multiple dimensions. In order to see and feel beyond your dimensions you will need to learn to let go of judgment. You will also need to feel so good about yourself, you will need to be drenched in self-love and then and only then will you be able to sense the greater story of who another person is. To see beyond physical attributes, to feel beyond what they say or do so you may feel their Soul. And know of their trials, tribulations, and lessons of incarnations past. Allow yourself to feel beyond the physical dimensions that you exist within.

We are here to guide you and show you The Way. We are here to teach you Unconditional Divine Love so you may become that Love. And as you become that Love you will bring that Love to others. Others who have become caught up in their stories. Others who have lost sight of that Light within. Others who have lost their way as they navigate their current incarnation. It is when the many have found and reconnected with their Light that your planet will shine with a brilliance that has never before been seen.

“And what is my part in all of this?” you may ask.

You and other Lightworkers have come forth to lead the way. You are the “wayshowers.” You have come to lead by example. To take up your full power so you may inspire others to do the same. You are here to find Divine Love, while incarnated in human form, and then to shine that Divine Love on all that come your way. You will share the Love and the Wisdom with your words that come from your heart. Words that are spoken, words that are written. But also you will soon learn to share your Love, Divine Love, and Divine Wisdom by not even speaking the words. You will soon learn your True Power and the ability to transfer Love energy by doing nothing except transmitting that Love energy. Soon you will transcend beyond the words and learn to communicate energetically. As you practice the Art of Letting Go and the Art of Opening Up, you will begin to transmit the Love and the Light through you without you even being consciously aware of it. Know this to be so. We will show you the way. To become a beacon of Love and Light, emitting the Divine without any physical manifestations of any kind.

Simply being Love and Light and thus emitting Love and Light by merely Being Who You Truly Are. Magic by human standards, but as things are in the Beyond. Mastering the Duality by transcending the physical limitations of human form. Allowing yourself to become a vessel and transference of Divine Light and Divine Love. As you learn the Art of Opening Up to the Infinite you will come forth to the state of Being that will allow this to be.

There are many other Lightworkers present on your planet at this time with you. All of them have a gift, “magic”, so to speak, that can assist in the Great Shift that is occurring at this time. All of them are here to perform their “magic” in their own way, to use their unique gifts for the greater good. There will come a time in the near future when all Lightworkers will unite. Not in the physical sense. You will all become connected in ways that your current physicality does not yet comprehend. It is the uniting, the unity, the coming together of all earthbound Lightworkers that will facilitate the energy shift that will mean the beginning of a New World order.

In the meantime, all those genuine Lightworkers will continue to practice their individual “magic” in their own way. They are practicing taking up their Power, for much Power is required to create the New Dawning, the New World Order. Know that many are here with you at this time in human history. That is why we ask you to learn to see and feel beyond the human form so you can feel your partners, your other family members who are here with you now. It is important that Lightworkers support each other. It is so easy to lose your Power to the fear that is all around you. When you do this, your ability to share your “magic” is diminished. That is why Lightworkers must support and encourage each other. There are also many Lightworkers who have not yet connected strongly to their Light. Part of what you are here to do is help them uncover their “magic” so they too may join the rest of the family members who are here to usher in this new way of life on your planet.

So please continue with all your Heart and with great diligence to help the others find their Light while supporting those who already have. A critical mass of Lightworkers is required to commence in earnest the changes your world is capable of making at this time. It is not that We ask you to rush or hurry, We merely ask you to continue your work. Continue to spread the message—the Light and the Love. Let go of your personal feelings and transcend to your feelings of the Whole. Move from Me to We. It is when all Lightworkers transcend beyond their separateness and move to their Unity that change will truly begin.

Let go of the Darkness, let go of the fear so you can move to the Light and the Love. Do so by standing in your Power. Inspire, awaken, and empower others to stand in their Power as well. For even if you help the non-Lightworkers stand in their power, they will be prepared for the New World Order. Help bring the Light of all Souls to shine through the human form.

We are here for you now and forever. Now go in peace, go in Love. Stand tall in the Light so you may shine forth. Feel Our Love for you and for all of mankind now and forever.
