

You are the Creators of your Future World

Yes, We are here with you now and forever. Take a deep breath and breathe Us in. Do not be afraid. For it is so easy in these turbulent times to be afraid. Yes, the times are stormy, but as We have told you before they are times of great potential for change. Your world is changing but what those changes will finally look like is not yet known. Keep your faith and realize that often things are not as they appear. Many of you see all around you what do not like. You see all around you much cause to be afraid of what is to come. But you forget that you are a Creator, yes, a great Creator. So many of you have been creating unconsciously for a long time. You do not realize that you have a part in what is happening in your world at this time. You are all the creators of your future world. You see it is your feelings that create and so if you are afraid, if you are fearful, if you are anxious, what do you think you will be creating?

Now is a very important time to connect, to be aware more of the time, of how you are feeling. Let go of what you think is happening all around you and instead move inward. Move to the still point that is deep within you. Be still. Be more still. Be still again. And from that stillness feel deeply. If it is fear, if it is anxiousness, if it is frustration, if it is disappointment, if it is anger, then so be it. Feel it deeply. Don't resist it. Feel it from the place deep within that is your centre, your place within that is where your connection to the Source resides. And as you feel deeply these uncomfortable feelings, allow the Love that is deep within you, that is deep within each and every human being, to comfort you. Yes, allow that Love, the unconditional Love that was placed in your DNA to help you feel safe, to feel secure, to feel at ease with all the misery and hardship that is all around you. Love is the cure for all that does not feel good. You cannot deny your feelings for they are Truth. But you can learn to shift those feelings. That is why We suggest you move inwards when the world around you brings up lower and slower feelings. Do not deny those feelings, but instead transmute them. And Love is the way to transmute any negative feelings or thoughts. Allow the alchemy of Love to help you shift so you may create in a more positive way.

Do not let the misery and hardship make you more afraid. For then those very feelings of hardship, of fear may bring more suffering to your world. Those who have suffered and those who are currently suffering, often have chosen to do so to help your world. That may seem hard to believe, but you must remember there is a Higher Power within each of you at work in guiding the events of your life. They have sacrificed, so to speak, their human existence so your world has an opportunity to awaken. Awaken from the unconscious sleep that so many of you are in. You believe what you see, you believe what you are told, instead of finding your own Truth. Yes, finding the Truth that can set you free. That can only happen when you stop following and instead have the courage to lead. Wake up and realize that things are not as they seem. There is a reality beyond your human seeing. There is a reality that is so much different than how things appear. Learn to see in a new way. Learn to sense reality by letting go of the obsessive thinking mind. Be still and you will come to KNOW the Truth. This is so important at this time of amplified suffering, of increased hardship, of excessive pain.

“Why is it so important,” you ask.

Because you are capable of shifting the suffering, shifting hardship, shifting the pain and creating a New World order. But you must learn to see things in a different way.

“How” We hear you ask.

By learning to see beyond what appears to be the current reality you will find a deeper Truth, a Truth that will not only set you free but can shift your world away from the Darkness that appears to be on the rise. When you go within, when you find the inner Truth you will come to Know of the illusions of human life. You will come to understand fully how human life is merely an outer shell so to speak, how each of you is merely playing a role in this game called human life. If you continue to see life from the perspective of your finite human existence then you will not be able to change the illusion. But if you are prepared to let go of how you see life, if you are prepared to see anew, to hear anew, to think anew, then you can change the world you live in. You will have to let go of the self-limiting beliefs you were taught. You can change the way you see human life. Human life will still remain an illusion, it must by the Laws of the Universe, but you, yes you, each and every human being has the power to see through the illusion and find the deeper Truth.

The fear, the hardship, the suffering, the pain that you are currently experiencing on your planet, the place of free choice, can be changed. Yes, it can be shifted. The choice is yours. How you respond to what you think is happening all around you at this time is what will create what you call your future. You are creating your future right now. Every reaction, every response to the pain, the suffering, the hardship will determine what is your next illusion, your next reality. Will there be a continuation, or even an intensifying of the pain, suffering, and hardship? That depends on you and how you react and respond to what you think is occurring in your present reality.

What are you doing, what are you saying, what are you thinking about this dismal current reality? Are you reacting with fear or are you responding with Love? What if all those who are perishing in natural disasters on your planet of late are offering you a great opportunity to change your world?

“How is that possible?” you ask.

By sacrificing their human existences in order to see if the world responds with Love or fear. To see if the world responds with empathy or apathy. How are you choosing to respond to the increase in hatred, bigotry, abuse, and discrimination that seems to be growing in your world? You do not realize that your responses to what is coming your way are so critical in creating your future world. So many of you remain asleep, unconscious, on autopilot and are not even aware of how you respond to what comes your way. You are so busy doing and thinking and planning that you don't pay attention to your responses to what is happening all around you. Slow down and become more aware of what you say, what you do and what you think when something happens to you or to others in your world.

What illusion do you want to create? How do you want your world to be? Full of Love, or full of hatred? Full of compassion or full of indifference? Full of unity or full of separation? Full of caring or full of apathy for the well-being of your fellow human brothers and sisters. You are deciding the future of your human illusion. It is time to wake up and decide how the next chapter in human history will be written. It is time to break the cycle of fear that has been intensifying on your planet if you choose to do so. It is time to take your Power back. It is time to stop following those you think know better than you. It is time to lead and not always follow.

Become more aware of how you are responding to each and every thing that comes your way. Wake up and become more conscious of what you are feeling, what you are thinking, what you are saying. And as you become more aware, realize you have a choice. You always have a choice.

How you react or respond, how you think, how you feel, how you speak is creating the future reality that is coming your way. Do so in a conscious way.

We bring you this message from a place of Love. We are here for you whenever you wish to call upon Us.
