Moving Above the 4th Dimension

We are Shaltazar the Gavish Banenu, the energy of 33 the Master Teacher. We have come forth at this time to bring you Divine Wisdom. Now simply release, let go and surrender. Simply Be in this moment. Take a deep breath. And again, another deep breath. Allow the tightness to be released. Let go of fear and move to Love. Feel Us for We are with you always and forever. We know forever is a difficult concept for you to comprehend. The human realm is very finite. It is full of endings and beginnings. But just maybe you are seeing one small part of the picture. It is possible to see more, the bigger picture, so to speak. But in order to do so you must rise above and look below. As We have told you before your perspective determines your reality. When you are in the midst, you cannot comprehend the same as being above looking down upon the midst. So if you choose, come and join Us on High. Come to the mountaintop so you can see the bigger picture, the wider landscape. But before you take this journey with Us all We ask is that you let go of your linearity. Let go of the logical mind. In order to truly comprehend the bigger picture letting go of your conditioned mind is necessary.

Again, take a deep breath. Release, let go and surrender. That means you must give up the need to be in control. You must trust fully. In order to see the bigger picture, the higher dimensions, you must be prepared to let go of the minutia and trivialities of human life. We are not saying that human life is not important. On the contrary, it is very important. Human life, as is all life, is sacred. What We are saying is that in order to comprehend, to experience a higher dimensional peak at your world, you need to let go of your limited perspective. For you do not realize how much your limited perspective prevents you from seeing the Whole of Life. Please don't try to figure out what We mean by this. Simply allow yourself to let go of your limited dimensionality for a moment.

Start by letting go of the concept of beginnings and endings. In order to do so, you must let go of time. What is time? Have you ever allowed yourself to transcend time? Can you move above time? You are Here Now as time moves forward. You are not moving forward as time is, because you remain Now Here. This moment has no linearity to it. It is merely Now. This moment has no beginning and no end. It is merely Now. It will always be Now. It never changes. This Now doesn't end and another Now begins. No, Now is Now.

Stay here with Us in this moment and also imagine something you desire. Don't let go of being in the Now. Don't think about that desire as something you want in the future. If you are able to stay focused on the Now you won't be taken back to the fourth dimension – time. Let go of time and stay here with Us in the Now. But in order to do so you probably think you must let go of your desire, that which you want. You don't believe if you do not have it now, that in order to get what you desire it must come forth in some future moment. Unfortunately, just the thought that you don't have it Now makes it separate from you. And that separation from what you want is what is keeping it from you. And thus, you are forced back into the fourth dimension, a limited reality where you think what you desire is in some future moment.

But if what you desire is in the future, then in this moment you are left trying to find and search for it. You are left to struggle, push and exert much energy as you try to get what it is that you want in some future moment, to come to you Now. And thus, once again you are pulled back into the linearity of time, the fourth dimension. You have left Us standing in the Eternal Now and you have gone back to the limited dimensionality of your human world.

"So how could we have done it differently" We hear you ask.

By staying in the Now and allowing what you desire to come to you. For some reason, you believe that in order to get what you desire, you need to go and find it. But what if We told you that you have the power to bring forth to you all that you desire always?

And We hear you say "But how?"

And of course, We have told you before that merely asking how takes your power away. The question of how once again separates you from your desire. How, assumes your desire is separate from you.

"It makes no sense to try and believe we have what we desire if it's not here now?" you say.

And there in lies the problem. As long as you believe Now Here is in the present and what you desire is in the future, you are stuck trying to bring your future desire to Now Here. We know this all sounds very confusing but that is because you are trying to make sense of it from the fourth dimensional perspective. We explained that in order to see the bigger picture you must let go of logic and linearity. When you do so, you will begin to realize that your linearity and logic are keeping that which you desire separate or away from you.

Now for a moment let go of trying to figure this out and come back to the present moment. There is no moment before this one and there is no moment after this one. This moment is all you have. Once again bring up your desire, that which you want, but this time bring it to you in this moment. Imagine what you desire in your mind's eye. Feel your desire, feel it deeply. Closing your eyes may help. Is it money, romance, career, vacation, new car, recognition, love? Whatever it is feel it in this Now moment.

"But imagining it doesn't make it real" We hear you say.

And We would say in this moment it is REAL. It is only when you think there is a future and a past that you don't have what you desire. In this moment, which is all there is, you have your desire. Do not let go of that feeling. Do not stop believing it is here in this Now moment. Do not let go of this Now moment. For if you do, what you desire once again becomes separate from you. You are back in linear time and stuck in the limitations of the fourth dimension.

What We are suggesting will take practice. A lot of practice. Begin to practice this concept in your meditations. Begin to practice staying in the Present, Now Here moment for as long as you can. For when you are able to let go of the limitations of time you will begin to master the Art of Manifestation. By being in the linearity of time you limit your ability to manifest more instantly.

Begin by working on staying in the present moment first. This is the prerequisite for instant manifestation. There have been humans who have achieved this on your planet in the past. They are often referred to as the Mastes. But with the energy changing on your planet it is possible for more of you to do so. Practice, practice and practice more staying in the Now Here. Become more comfortable letting go of the need to be in linear time. It is the limitation of linear time that holds you back from having all that you desire. Time keeps you separate from your wants and desires. Master the art of being in the Now Here more of the time and your desires will come to you in great abundance.

When you are in the Now Here you can bring your desires to you. When you sentence yourself to live in linear time you think you need to get to your desires. Linear time makes you go after or search for your wants because you believe they exist in the future. Moving above the limitations of the fourth dimension allows your desires to come to you.

Do not try too hard to understand what We are telling you. Instead, just practice staying in the Now Here more of the time. Let go of the past, let go of the future and be with Us in the Now. When you are able to do so you will come to realize you don't have to always live with the restrictions and limitations of the fourth dimension. Move above to higher dimensions while still in human form. It can be done and it will make your life easier and more abundant.

We bring you this message from a place of love. We are with you always and forever. Our love for you is unconditional and everlasting.

With Love

Shaltazar
