A New You, A New World

Greetings, dear ones, We are Shaltazar, the Gavish Banenu, the Energy of 33, the Master Teacher and We have come forth at this time in your human history to bring you Divine Wisdom. Wisdom that can set you free, wisdom that can make your life easier and more enjoyable. In order to tap into this wisdom, in order to understand this wisdom, in order to comprehend this wisdom, in order to apply this wisdom, it requires that you begin to let go of your conditioned beliefs, that you let go of looking at life through the four-dimensional world that you are so used to seeing life through. Yes, everything that you see, everything that you do, everything that you think from the four-dimensional perspective is only a small part, yes, a very small part of life, even of human life. And so, We invite you to open up to new perspectives. But to open up to new ways of seeing things, new ways of hearing things, and new ways of feeling things, you must be prepared to let go of your programmed unconscious mind. If you choose to see life from a different perspective, you may be pleasantly surprised, for things are not always as they seem. Things are not always as you see them, things are not always as you read about them, things are not always as you hear about them, things are not always as you think they are.

There is so much more, but to comprehend, to fathom that which is beyond the fourth dimension, one must let go and open up. One must be attached to nothing and open to everything. And that is difficult because you choose to be in control. You think the more you are in control, the more you know and the more you are right, the safer you will be. But that limits you to the possibilities of human consciousness. If you choose to move beyond human consciousness you could create from a place of infinite possibilities. But to do so, to create anew, you must wipe the slate clean, so to speak, and let go of all that you believe is true. By doing so you will create space to bring forth new truths, higher truths if you so choose. Truths that can allow you to live a life with greater freedom, greater harmony, and greater peace.

We know what We are asking you to do is very difficult, is very challenging because We know you cling so tightly to your beliefs. You cling so tightly to your knowledge that you believe is true. And so, We invite you to begin by letting go of some of the truths that you have learned. Do not be afraid when you let go of what you believed to be the truth. Do not be afraid when you create an empty space where your beliefs resided. It can be very scary to let go of all you believed to be true and be left with nothing to accept as truth. But it is from that space, from the unencumbered space that you can begin to create anew.

It is like cleaning house, so to speak. When your house becomes cluttered with all of the possessions, all of the mementos, all of the accumulations that you have collected over the years of your human experience, you cannot help but interpret your life from that cluttered space. It is the cleaning out of that which was, that will allow you to bring forth that which can be. Yes, a new way of seeing your life that will allow you to bring forth new perspectives, new paradigms, new beliefs, a new way of living your life. But until that housecleaning is done you cannot begin the rebuilding process. We invite you to empty out that which no longer serves you. But We suggest you do so in a loving way. Do not put down or judge your past experiences, for they brought you to where you are today. They have created the person that you are. But if you do not let go of the past experiences, they will continue to build upon that which you are, just in a bigger way. Do you wish to create from the same paradigm that you have for all your years of existence? If you are totally content, happy, and fulfilled then by all means do so. But if you are ready for change then maybe it is time to create a new paradigm, a new way of living your life. And by doing so you can contribute to a new paradigm for humanity.

The pandemic that was brought upon you was not done from a place of punishment, or retribution, or even karma, but as an opportunity. It was brought forth so you can change the ways of your world. Because the ways of your world are not sustainable to allow the continued expansion of human existence. It may be difficult to comprehend that in the midst of the challenges of this pandemic that you can rebuild your world in a better way. But We can assure you that it is very possible. Allow this situation to be the new start. But to do so, it requires the letting go of the old, it requires the housecleaning that We referred to. Yes, the housecleaning of how humanity operates. The paradigms that have been built up over the thousands of years of your civilization must change. The status quo is not an option.

If you can see this as an opportunity, there is great potential for new expansion upon your planet. But it will require the letting go of much that you know as truth. And We know that is difficult for some because We sense their frustration, their anger. They are choosing to blame and complain because they do not want to let go of that which was. There are many of you, the awakened ones who realize that there is more to this current situation than meets the eye. There is opportunity to create anew. So go within dear ones, and do your own personal housecleaning. Let go of the thoughts, let go of the beliefs, let go of the paradigms, let go of the habits that no longer serve you. It is time to make major changes in your life and how you see yourself and the world around you.

We know that can be frightening and We know that can be scary, for it is not easy to let go of that which you have relied on, that which you believed would keep you safe. To let go of it requires great trust and great faith. We would like to assure you that We are here with you every step of the way. We will help you rebuild your civilization. But letting go of the institutions, letting go of the building blocks, letting go of the paradigms, and even letting go of the foundation that your civilization has been built upon is required to truly rebuild a new world order. The old can no longer be repaired. It is like a building that has existed for a lengthy time. It has been renovated and added to numerous times over the years. There comes a time when you can no longer repair, renovate, or add to it. The decision must be made to demolish it and start over to build a new structure. It must be built anew.

Rise up, dear ones, rise up with positivity, rise up with faith, rise up with trust, and begin to rebuild your civilization. Come to the mountaintop with Us and look upon your world. It is time to re-evaluate what you thought was so important. You may come to realize that which you put great value upon, is not as valuable as you once thought. It is time to re-examine everything in human life but do so with fresh eyes. Do not assume that just because it exists it is for a beneficial purpose. Once again, We suggest that if it does not serve you, if it is not of value, if it does not serve the greater good, then it must be destroyed. Once that is accomplished you can begin the rebuilding process in earnest.

We urge you to do so from a greater sense of consciousness, a greater sense of awareness. Begin to examine the values in your life and realize that you may not have been living from the values you chose, from those things that you believe are important. So much of your world has been handed down from generation to generation without consciously deciding if it should be kept. Many have been living from habit, many have been living an unconscious life. So, in this process of rebuilding and starting anew, begin with the building blocks of creating the values that you want your life to be built upon. Go within, reflect, ruminate, and take your time to decide what really matters. Let go of that which no longer serves you so you can create the space to begin again.

Know that We are with you during this reconstruction process of your humanity. Let Us remind you that this transformation of your humanity, this renewal of your civilization starts with YOU. As within, so without. As you begin to rebuild your life, as you begin to re-evaluate what is important, as you look at your values, your principles and begin to make them the building blocks of your life, you will notice that the Collective Consciousness begins to change. For as you change the Whole changes. This transformation of your humanity begins with YOU.

Do not fret or worry about changing the world but instead begin to change you. It is time if you choose, to let go of what you were taught and instead listen to your heart of hearts. It is time to connect to that part of you that has been here many times before. Let Spirit lead the way. Allow your Divinity to direct the changes that you want to make in your life. Allow your innate compassion, empathy, goodness, caring, love, and understanding to direct how you want to change who you wish to become. Allow that part of you that is the Source to orchestrate the changes in you. Allow God's Will to become your will.

And if you do so, then your world will begin to replicate that of the Higher Realms. You will be able to create a world of greater love, compassion, empathy, harmony, unity, and understanding. You will have created heaven on Earth. Have the courage dear ones to begin the rebuilding of yourself so your world can continue to grow and expand in a new and better way.

We bring you this message from a place of love. Our love for you is unconditional and everlasting.
