Releasing Your Fear to Receive Divine Guidance

Greetings, dear ones. We are Shaltazar, the Gavish Banenu, the Energy of 33, the Master Teacher and We have come forth at this time to bring you Divine Wisdom. Wisdom that will allow you to feel more at peace, more at ease, so you may let go of the challenges, the difficulties and the fears that are polluting your planet. Know that there is so much more for you than meets the eye. Recognize that although you are in human form, and you think that your humanness is all you are, that is not true. There is a piece of the Source within each and every one of you. And since the Source, the All, the Great Creator, the Everything is a part of you, then that means you are connected to Everything. You are all that ever was, all that is, and all that will ever be. It may be difficult for you to comprehend you are more than your physical being, more than your physicality, because when you look in the mirror you just see the body that you call by your name. But what if We told you that is only one small part of the picture. There is so much more to you than you may be aware of or have been able to tap into.

Let Us suggest the image of an iceberg. For the iceberg is a perfect analogy that may help you understand this message. If you look at an iceberg you will see only that which is above the surface of the water. But there is so much more below the surface. Begin to think of yourself as that iceberg, but instead of the iceberg with much of its form below the surface, think of a cone-shaped funnel coming out of your Crown Chakra. There is an invisible channel that reaches upward to the Heavens that can expand or contract. It is an essential part of Who You Truly Are. It is as if you are the tip of the funnel on planet Earth and moving upwards in a fan shaped way is that other part of you which you cannot see, which you may not be aware of.

We have been encouraging you to connect to Spirit and go within to find the still point so you could appreciate your life more from a Spiritual perspective. All of what you are going through on planet Earth has created the potential for great change. But that change, my dear ones, is up to you, for you live on the planet of free choice. Many of you believe that the choices you make must be made from your physicality, must be made from your form, must come from the mind that has been conditioned by others. But that is not the truth. We have told you many times that We are with you now and forever. We are sending you love, We are sending you wisdom, We are sending you all that you need to get through these difficult and challenging times.

But to do so, you must open up to that part of you which you cannot see. You must open up to the part of you that is orchestrating so much more in your life than you can imagine. There are things occurring in your life that could be explained away as flukes, random happenings, or happenchance. But let Us assure you that is not the case. For if you could see, if you could understand, if you could fathom the Invisible World, if you could see what We are doing for you every minute of every day, you would be astonished.

But unfortunately, dear ones, unless you are willing to receive, unless you are willing to open up to the wisdom that We send you, unless you are willing to follow the nudges, intuitions, gut feelings, and hunches, your life is left to simply be the tip of the iceberg.

We invite you to learn to connect in a deeper way to that part of you which is beyond your form. Tap into Us on a regular basis for We are sending you not only love, but guidance and wisdom 24 hours a day. But for many of you, your minds are so busy, there is so much static, there is so much going on, you cannot perceive that which you cannot physically see. Begin to sense the Invisible World all around you, begin to sense the coincidences, the happenstances, the synchronicities, the things that seem strange. They may appear funny or weird or unexplainable, but that is because they have been created by that part of you which lies above the surface, the part of the iceberg you cannot see.

There is more to what is happening in and around you than you may know. We understand it is challenging being raised to honour the mind, assuming linearity, logic and science are the only way to explain things. For some, it is hard to believe in something you cannot see, that you cannot fathom or comprehend. But there is much happening in your world that you openly accept even though you cannot see or fully understand it. You may not know how your Wi-Fi or your electricity is using invisible energy, but you openly embrace it, for it makes your life easier. You do not seem to have a desire to fully comprehend how your cell phone allows communication that travels invisibly through space. When you download and watch something on your smart device, do you realize that it is being transmitted to you over energy waves, over vibrational frequencies? All that exists in the Universe is vibrational energy. Even your physicality is vibrating. It is simply doing so at a lower and slower frequency than the vibrational energy guidance We are sending you. If you take a piece of ice that you can see and touch and apply enough energy to it, you will create vapour that is invisible. Your laws of physics explain how matter can change states by increasing the speed of its vibrating particles. And so that which you cannot see, still exists nonetheless. It just exists in a transformed state.

We invite you to work on your practices and techniques to tap into the guidance that is available to you. Begin to realize We are working for you, We are working with you to bring forth your desires, to turn your wishes into manifestations. But often your mental obsessiveness stops the transmission. Often your busy mind keeps you so distracted you cannot feel Us, you cannot hear Us, you cannot see Us and you cannot know Us. But be assured We will not stop transmitting to you that which you need to make your life easier, more fulfilling, and more content. We are here for you always and forever. Begin to contemplate, begin to try to understand that which is beyond your physicality. Stop thinking that everything is only what you can perceive from your humanness. For as in the iceberg analogy, there is significantly more below the surface than the eye can see. There is so much beyond your physicality that is working diligently, that is working continuously to assist you in helping change you and your planet. You are in the midst of the Energy of Great Potential for Change and no change is not an option. Why not tap into the resources available to you so the change can be easier. In order to do so, you must learn to see in a new way, you must learn to hear in a new way, you must learn to feel in a new way, you must learn to know in a new way.

Release the old paradigms, release the beliefs which no longer serve you, open up to the potentiality that is all around you, even if you cannot see it. Have faith, have trust, let go of the lower and slower feelings that are holding you in your physicality. Fear is a major problem on your planet currently. As the physical threat of the virus you have named COVID-19 begins to dissipate, what will remain is the emotional and mental trauma that comes from the fear you have allowed to poison your planet. Not only is there an opportunity for you to clean up your environment, Mother Earth, but there is an opportunity for you to clean up your contaminated energy field, your polluted mind. Fear has infiltrated much of your humanity. If you do not clean it up, the Darkness which will come forth will wreak much destruction.

It is time to mitigate the fear. It is time to purge the fear. It is time to let go, release and surrender. The harder you try to control your life, the more you edge out, push away, and ignore the invisible assistance that is available to you. We can only orchestrate your well-being to the extent that you choose to follow Our guidance. You live on the planet of free choice, and unless you make appropriate choices, all that We conspire to bring you cannot come into fruition. If you insist on remaining in control, you will not be able to mitigate the emotional and mental upheaval that is coming your way. We invite you to surrender to that which is beyond your control. Let go of the fear. Let go of the trepidation. Let go of the anxiety. Let go of the unease. Let go of the emotional trauma and tap into the resources that are available to you even though you cannot see them. We will show you the way, but you must make choices based on the guidance We are sending you if you want to live a life of greater peace and harmony.

We bring you this message from a place of love. Our love for you is everlasting and unconditional.
